Meet EDNA HARPAUL

I started working at the Westbury Library in January 2003 as the Coordinator for Adult Programs. This has been the second job of my career. I have a Masters Degree in Higher Education from New York University and have taught most of my life at the community college level. Over the years I have developed strong relationships with my community via this job and the fact that I have lived in Westbury for 38 years. Libraries are safe havens, they connect people to people.

The Adult Programs Department is responsible for listening to the needs of our patrons and offering programs of interest and following our mission statement. I create, negotiate and make programs come to life for the betterment of our community. We offer programs that are beneficial to all ages and practical of our needs such as: exercise, lectures, defensive driving classes, community affairs, cooking classes, movies, arts and crafts, writing and computer classes, enabling older adults to stay engaged in a digital world. Westbury Library is a complete community resource, offering literacy programs to all members of the community, participating in outreach events and our Historical Society of the Westburys helps to preserve the past. The Westbury Library truly lives up to its mission statement and I am proud to be a contributing factor.

I have fond memories of libraries since I came to this country in the mid sixties. The New York Public Library on 125th Street in Manhattan was my favorite place to visit on a Sunday afternoon. This Sunday ritual gave my sister and I "freedom," and a joy for learning, and it helped us learn English, too.

My favorite part of working at the Westbury Library is the relationships I get to build with our patrons/community. Hearing a live concert, going on a bus trip, planning and seeing the end result of our bi-monthly newsletter are all on-going creative endeavors that give me joy.

HAITI EARTHQUAKE RELIEF DRIVE

Recently a 7.2-magnitude earthquake devastated the people of Haiti. Please join our relief efforts to help them get back on their feet. Your donation of non-perishable food items, clothing, toiletries and hygiene products, money and tents would be greatly appreciated. A drop-off box will be located by the main office for donations.

HOPE FOR HAITI

Adult Programming/Registration Most programs require registration. Please register for all in-house and virtual programs through EventKeeper. If having difficulties registering contact Edna Harpaul at 516-333-0176.
