In November we will see a collaboration of the Westbury Arts and the Westbury Historical Society to celebrate the Village of Westbury 90th Anniversary. A month-long exhibit will be held at the Westbury Arts, the Yes We Can Center and at the Westbury Memorial Public Library. There will be an Exhibit Reception at the Library on Sunday, November 6th at 2:30pm. Please join us. ## ALI BLAU

How long have you worked at the library, and what was your first job here?

I've worked at the Westbury Library for seventeen years, starting as a librarian trainee, with a special interest in working with the teen population of Westbury and Carle Place. As the Young Adult Librarian, I am primarily responsible for running teen programs and staffing our after school Teen Zone. I also service the adult reference desk

What is your favorite thing about working at the Library?

I love getting to know our patrons, connecting them to books and information. Getting positive feedback from someone that I made a recommendation to, or having students talk to me about their interests while we work on a craft together, that sense of community and building relationships is the best.

What three traits define you?

Compassion, tolerance and sarcasm

What are your favorite indoor/outdoor activities?

Despite being a self-proclaimed indoor bookworm, I've grown to adore hiking around Long Island and the Catskills, and I love exploring new trails.

What would you name the autobiography of your life?

It Seemed Like a Good Idea at the Time.

Lightning Round Questions?

- A. Fiction or Non-Fiction? Fiction
- B. Horror or Comedy? Comedy
- C. Ebook or Hardback? Ebook to read, Hardback to hoard
- D. Marvel or DC? Marvel
- E. Vanilla or Chocolate? Chocolate
- F. Zoom or In-House? In-House

COOKING

HIGH TEA, IN-HOUSE

Monday, December 5, 6:30 pm

Chat Noir of Rockville Centre and owner Melissa Kelly will present this high tea gathering. Enjoy pastries, sandwiches and scones and a variety of teas. Legend has it that afternoon tea was started in the mid-1800s by the Duchess of Bedford. Around this time, kerosene lamps were introduced in wealthier homes, and eating a late dinner (around 8 or 9 pm) became fashionable. This increasingly late dinner was one of only two meals each day, the other was a mid-morning, breakfast-like meal. The story goes that the Duchess found herself with a "sinking feeling." This was likely fatigue from hunger during the long wait between meals. She decided to invite friends over for assorted snacks and tea, which was a very fashionable drink at the time. The idea of an afternoon tea gathering spread across high society and became a favorite pastime of ladies of leisure. Registration and payment of a non-refundable fee of $20 is due November 23 in order to attend this program. Registration begins November 10. Open to Westbury and Carle Place residents only. Class limit 25.
