SARAH SIEGEL CULTURAL PROGRAM SPECIALIST

It is a pleasure to be working in the Adult Program Department at the Westbury Memorial Public Library! While I am a brand new face at WMPL, I spent a number of years working as program coordinator at the Rockville Centre Public Library. I have long possessed an affinity for libraries. Growing up in the rural Midwest, the library was both a refuge, and a passport to all sorts of adventures! I worked in my local library as a page throughout high school, and in college at my university library. I taught school for many years before returning to a library position. Reading remains one my favorite pastimes, and some of you may know me from various book discussion groups that I facilitate across Long Island.

When I'm away from the Library you are likely to find me with my nose in a book...I read widely and eclectically. If you've read something you love, be sure to recommend it to me! I love talking about books. I'm a big believer that talking about books is one of the best ways we have of learning about and understanding one another. I value my time with family and friends (animal friends, too!) and enjoy gardening, cooking, and creative projects...and I'm an avid college football fan!

Libraries today are so much more than just repositories of books. Today's library fulfills many roles. Importantly, libraries provide a place for people to connect with one another and their communities. What better way to connect and grow together than through the library's program offerings? I look forward to meeting our patrons, learning how to best meet their expectations, and forging new friendships along the way. The same can be said for creating partnerships with my new colleagues!

UNBOSSED AND UNBOWED: THE STORY OF SHIRLEY CHISHOLM WITH INGRID GRIFFITH, IN-HOUSE

Sunday, February 5, 2:30 pm

Unbossed and Unbowed is the largely unheard story of Shirley St. Hill Chisholm, a Brooklyn-born politician of immigrant parents, who in the 20th century, was the first African-American woman to win a seat in the U.S. Congress and run for the Presidency of the United States. Unbossed & Unbowed dramatizes the Civil Rights era, the unrest of the 1960s, the patriarchal system and the all-boys network Shirley Chisholm was up against; many themes we still see in the politics of today. Visuals and music establish the tenor of the times and create mental images of the economic, political and social upheavals in America from the 1930s to the early 1970s. The characters all have strong voices and valid points-of-view, but it's Shirley Chisholm's narrative that delivers the message.
